PRESS RELEASE
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
JANUARY 7, 2005

GLOUCESTER GRIFFINS CHOOSE SUCCESSFUL HOME GROWN COACH- SERGE SEGUIN

GLOUCESTER- The Gloucester Griffins Junior Lacrosse Club is pleased to announce that Serge Seguin has accepted the position of Head Coach.

Serge has many years of box lacrosse experience both as a player and as a Coach. He played lacrosse locally within the Gloucester Minor program, also played for the Junior Griffins back in 1980, played Senior lacrosse for the Huntsville Hawks in 1983/84. As Head Coach of the Junior Griffins back in 1987 through 1990 and one season in 1994, Seguin made Griffin history and became the most successful Coach, posting a record of 70 wins and 25 losses and being selected Coach of the Year in 1988 and again in 1989.

“We are excited and have great confidence that Serge will do an excellent job here with the Junior Griffins. He brings an enormous amount of playing and coaching experience to our team and is highly respected amongst the lacrosse community” says Mike Roy, General Manager of the Junior Griffins.

“I am very excited about becoming the new Head Coach” says Seguin. “I am committed to strengthening our Junior program here in Gloucester and look forward to the many challenges that lie ahead. We will put together a team of competitive, hard working Junior lacrosse players this season” says Seguin.

The Gloucester Griffins will be announcing the dates for their upcoming training and tryout camp in early February. The Griffins play their home games out of the Earl Armstrong Arena and the regular season starts in late April and runs though until the end of June.
